World Migratory Bird Day

INVITATION

Event to Celebrate World Migratory Bird Day 2025 in Bonn

World Migratory Bird Day is a global campaign that aims to raise awareness of migratory birds and issues related to their conservation. This year's theme "Shared Spaces: Creating Bird-Friendly Cities and Communities," highlights the importance of making our cities more bird-friendly, benefitting nature and people alike.

Join the global celebration of migratory birds and come enjoy a day of nature-walks and nature-talks as well as a special bird tour for families with children (age 6 and older from 11:00 - 13:00) at the "House of Nature" in Bonn on World Migratory Bird Day.

Official Opening with Remarks from:

- Nicole Unterseh, Deputy Mayor of Bonn, Welcoming Remarks
- Amy Fraenkel, Executive Secretary, Convention on Migratory Species (CMS)
- Jacques Trouvilliez, Executive Secretary, African-Eurasian Waterbird Agreement (AEWA)
- Gino Van Begin, Secretary General of ICLEI
- Åsa Jonsson, Head of Global Water Operator's Alliance (GWOPA) at UN-Habitat
